

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

1
5271
United States Department of Agriculture
Bureau of Biological Survey
415 Post Office Building, Spokane, Washington

LIBRARY
RECEIVED
★ OCT 13 1931 ★
U. S. Department of Agriculture

September 20, 1931.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR WATERFOWL HUNTERS ---1931

An amendment to the Federal migratory-bird treaty-act regulations, approved on August 25, 1931, by President Hoover and effective from that date, limits the open season for wild ducks (except wood duck and cedar ducks, which have no open season at any time of the year); wild geese (except Ross's goose and cackling goose, which have no open season at any time of the year); brant; and coot (mud-hen), in the entire States of Idaho and Montana, to the month of October ONLY, the season to open at 12 o'clock noon on October 1, 1931, and to close at sunset on October 31, 1931, within the States above named..

A second amendment to the Federal migratory-bird treaty-act regulations, approved on September 12, 1931, by President Hoover and effective from that date, limits the open season for waterfowl and coot, as named above, in the States of Washington and Oregon to the period from 12 o'clock noon on November 16, 1931 to sunset on December 15, 1931, ONLY.

Webster H. Ransom,
United States Game Protector,
415 Post Office Building,
Spokane, Wash.

PLEASE GIVE THIS IMMEDIATE AND WIDESPREAD PUBLICITY

